TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Ms. Kagithapu Ravali, was an Intern at Srujana centre for Innovation, L V Prasad Eye Institute, Hyderabad, India from 3rd February 2017 to 31st March 2017.

As part of her internship, she developed a Web Application -Eyenovations. The Application is to create a client - server interface that can upload data in different formats like text files, JPEG images and videos from multiple devices running at remote places on different platforms into server side database. This also provides user authentication and permissions to access the various windows in the application. She is successful in setting up the server, installations of pre-requisites and test the application by creating network to identify expected pipeline. She has shown tremendous potential during her time here with her excellent communication skills and also being a good team player.
