The Tuition Fees in this Offer are for a standard full-time annual study load (120 credit points). The Actual Tuition Fees that you will be charged may vary from what is listed in this Offer and will be based on your subject enrolment and the published Actual Tuition Fee for the Commencement Date. The University reserves the right to vary Tuition Fees on an annual basis. In the event of a fee increase, the University will issue you with a Statement of Account after enrolment for your Actual Tuition Fees, which will indicate the specified due date for payment of each subject. If you are enrolled in a greater than standard 60 credit point load in any semester, you may be required to pay additional fees in that semester which were not previously advised to you in this Offer.

Once you have enrolled and commenced your Course, the Actual Tuition Fees for continuing students will not normally rise above 7% per annum, except in circumstances where additional costs are imposed on the University to provide the Course. Should the University decide to increase its fees, that increase will be applied at the beginning of each calendar year.

Each subject that you enrol in within your Course has a Census Date after which you become financially liable for subject. If you withdraw from a subject after the Census date you must still pay for the subject. The Census Date for each subject you enrol in will be shown on your Statement of Account.

This Offer is subject to the University 'Refund Policy and Privacy Statement'. The policy is detailed in the Offer Acceptance Form and is available on the following website latrobe.edu.au/international/fees/tuition

The Australian Government's Department of Immigration and Border Protection suggested living costs for international students is to allow for approximately AUD $19,830 per annum (year). This is in addition to the tuition fees outlined above. Full details of this can be seen at <http://www.border.gov.au/Trav/Stud/More/Student-Visa-Living-Costs-and-Evidence-of-Funds>

Extra Remarks:

All international student visa holders are required to have an active visa length OSHC from the date of their arrival in Australia until the date their visa expires. The listed OSHC duration is based on you arriving in Australia up to two months before course commencement until your visa expires. If you wish to arrive in Australia more than two months before your course commencement date, your OSHC policy will need to be extended to include this period. In that case please contact your Admissions Officer who can arrange an updated offer letter with extended OSHC duration and new OSHC rate.

Please note: The annual fee listed in this offer and the normal structure of this course is based on students enrolling in six 15 credit point subjects per year (90 credit points) for two years. General information about EFTSL and fees at La Trobe University can be found on the main La Trobe University website.

The Master of Information and Communication Technology has a total course load of 180 credit points (12 subjects) and the number of credit points per year may vary from the standard 120 credit points. The estimated total course cost for this course is approximately $51,300.

To be eligible to the research component in the second year of this program, you must achieve a minimum grade average of 70% in the first year of studies.

You are expected to check-in at La Trobe University on your arrival. Check-in will take place each day, between 10am – 4pm on 19,20,21 February 2018. You must bring your passport, visa and this letter of offer to be able to check-in on the day. Orientations will occur from 26/2-2/3 2018 at Melbourne (Bundoora) campus.

Accepting Your Offer:

Please ensure you read the Pre-departure Guide. This provides important information on how to accept your offer and apply for your student visa.
