

Funded Research Project

Title: Place-Making with Older Adults, Towards Age-Friendly Communities

This is a collaborative project between India and UK for a duration of three years i.e. from 2019 to 2021. It is funded by the ESRC of UK and ICSSR of India. As part of the project in India, data was collected from three cities namely Delhi, Kolkata and Hyderabad.

I, V.Jahnavi, Sr.Asst.Professor, in the Humanities and Mathematics Department of GNITS was chosen as Project Assistant and In charge of data collection in Hyderabad city.

A total amount of Rs. 1,80,000 was received by me which includes contingency amount and travel expenses to Edinburgh, Scotland, for a review meeting as part of the Indian Investigating Team, in January 2020.

Consultancy

During the COVID 19 Lockdown period, Sri Padmavathi Mahila University, Tirupati, took initiative to institute a COVID Helpline to provide the needed support to people across the two states of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana. 25 Psychologies were selected and were trained online, to handle SOS calls from vulnerable people from all walks of life.

I, V.Jahnavi, Sr.Asst.Professor, Department of Humanities and Mathematics, was among the 25 Psychologists chosen. Calls received were not only related to COVID 19 but were varied and diverse which had been indirectly impacted by COVID 19.

Wide publicity was given on TV, Radio and newspapers. The contact numbers of the Counselors were also displayed on the website of SPMVV.

The helpline is still active.

Re: India Academic Team Visit

It is my pleasure to confirm your visit to the The School of the Built Environment at Heriot Watt University from the 19th January to 26th January 2020.

The purpose of your visit is to collaborate on a research project Ageing Well in Urban Environments: Developing Age Friendly Cities and Communities funded by the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC). You are being invited as a Project Investigator on the India project team. The programme of activities for your stay will involve project meetings, analysis, workshops, and presentations.

You have sufficient funds to cover all reasonable costs in relation to your visit, without working or accessing public funds. This includes the cost of your return or onward journey, accomodation, any costs relating to dependants, and the cost of any planned activities such as private medical treatment.

We look forward to welcoming you to the University. If there is any further information you require please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Important Information

Airport security and airline check-in may require a printed copy of the itinerary and/or this e-ticket receipt.
 Passengers must carry government issued photo id (domestic travel only) or passport (valid at least 6 months beyond the return date with 2 clear consecutive pages).
 For flights or other scheduled transport, each section must be used in the order of travel date or subsequent travel may become invalid with no recourse to refund or change (dependent upon original ticket conditions).
 You are responsible for complying with any airline's terms and conditions in relation to check-in and reconfirmation of flights. Please note each ticket carries its own unique terms and conditions including expiration dates and conditions of use. Check the airline's fare rules on their website for more information.

Check-In Information

Please check the airline's website for online check-in.

Guidelines for check-in opening times:

- Domestic: 90 minutes,
- European(EU): 2 hours,
- Non-European: 3 hours,
- Longhaul (incl Israel): 4 hours

For low-cost airline bookings, please note that the majority of these carriers often mandate that the traveller checks in and prints the boarding pass prior to arriving at the airport. Please check on the low-cost carrier's website for further information.

To view your itinerary via your mobile device, install the Key Travel App
Alternatively, you can find your itinerary via www.checkmytrip.com

Visa Information

Please check that you have all the necessary visas, documents and sufficient passport validity.
For domestic travel, please carry government issued photo ID or passport. All photo ID must exactly match the name on the ticket.

For entry into the U.S:

You may be eligible to enter the U.S under the Visa Waiver Scheme. If applicable you must hold a machine readable passport and MUST REGISTER on esta.cbp.dhs.gov at least 72 hours before departure. You can travel to the US for 90 days max under the visa waiver scheme, except if applying in person to the U.S Embassy.
Please note: the US Government charges travellers applying for an ESTA (ESTA is valid for 2 years).
