ANTI-RAGGING CELL

Anti-Ragging Cell (ARC) was constituted in 2015 to curb ragging activities in the Institution as per the guidelines given by statutory bodies such as AICTE, UGC, State Government and JNTUH, Hyderabad, A committee was formed with both students and faculty as its members. Prof Gadicherla Gopinath, Professor, EEE Dept is the co-ordinator cum nodal officer.

The ARC aims to redress the grievances of students especially first year students. This cell strives to establish a conducive and safe environment in the institution for the freshly admitted students. The complaints received by the students are redressed with mutual consultations and based on the gravity of the complaint. The students are encouraged to file their complaints which are considered by the Anti-Ragging Cell. The meetings will be called by the Co-ordinator to decide the course of action to be taken depending on the seriousness of the complaint.

Ragging definiton:

“Ragging involves abuse, humiliation, or harassment of new entrants or junior students by the senior students. It often takes a malignant form wherein the junior is asked to do all sorts of uncomfortable/objectionable things”.

Aims & Objectives

1. To prevent ragging in all its forms in GNITS.
2. To propose adequate measures to the college authorities to CURB ragging in the Campus.
3. To provide a safe and congenial environment for the students by instilling confidence in them.
4. To initiate required steps in the Institution as per the instructions received from Director of Technical Education, JNTUH & UGC for their effective implementation.
5. To display banners and posters about ill effects of ragging and the related consequences.
6. To provide required guidance and counselling for the needy students.

Grievance redressal mechanism:

1. In case of any ragging incident, the aggrieved can:

1. Approach any member of Anti-Ragging Committee or Nodal Officer or any HOD or Principal.
2. Lodge her complaint through grievances drop box placed in all departments.
3. Send an email to nodal officer at arc@gnits.ac.in.

2. On receipt of a serious complaint related to ragging, the following procedure will be followed:

- A sub-committee will be formed under the chairmanship of Principal or any another senior faculty member which shall conduct a preliminary enquiry so as to ascertain the facts of the allegations by collecting circumstantial evidences as well as recorded statements of any witness/es including the complainant.
- The inquiry shall be completed within a period of one week.
- On completion of the inquiry, the sub-committee shall submit a report of its findings soon after completion of its inquiry.
- The Principal shall then act upon the recommendations of the sub-committee with an intimation to the parents.

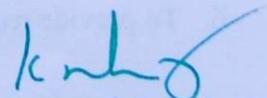

3. What are the possible actions that can be taken against respondent?

- Oral or written Warning
- Written apology/undertaking
- Suspension from classes
