REPORT

FDP on "Contemporary Trends and Approaches of English Language Teaching & Soft Skills"

Date of program: 16/05/2022 to 21/05/2022

About the Program: The FDP focuses on creating a lively interest in soft skills for the career development and professional satisfaction of teachers, with focus on contemporary methods of teaching. All the resource persons imparted insights into key areas such as non-verbal communication and soft skills, viewing teaching and learning as communicative acts, and addressing quality concerns in higher education.
