

Report on Pre-Conference workshop on “Distributed data Analytics on Secure Enclaves” (ICICC-2022)

G.Narayanamma Institute of technology Science Conducted an International Conference on Intelligent computing and communications(ICICC-2022) under this banner, The department of Humanities & Mathematics conducted a Pre-Conference workshop titled on "Distributed data analytics on secure enclaves" dated on 19th November 2022.

While data usage has been remarkably increasing, the community is also facing many challenges from Network design, Security, Prevention from cyber-attacks and many more.so we recognise this workshop is a platform where the experts and professionals can share their knowledge. The resource person for this workshop gave hands on experience to the students Resource persons are Mr A.Srinivasa Rao, Director VISA, along with his team Satya Srinivasa Rao,Murthy P ,Yoganand M. In this program College Principal Dr.K.Ramesh Reddy, Head of the department Humanities & Mathematics Professor P.Aparna, Coordinator Dr.S.Vasundhara and the department staff and around 100 students participated.

with the Resource Persons during the workshop

Interaction during the session

Session in progress

Hands on Session